Please feel free to contact the data protection officer directly at any time with your questions concerning your data protection rights and/or your rights as data subject.

2. Personal data processing and purposes of data processing

Participation in the survey is voluntary. It is not necessary to provide any personal data in order to complete the survey. You therefore have the option of completing the survey entirely anonymously, without providing any information about yourself. At the end of the survey, you may voluntarily provide your name, email address and/or telephone number. This information will be used exclusively to inform you, at your request, about the results of the survey and/or to send you the results.

Your personal data will only be processed for this purpose if you voluntarily provide us with such data. The legal basis for processing is your consent pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. a GDPR. Consent is voluntary and may be withdrawn at any time with effect for the future. The lawfulness of processing carried out prior to the withdrawal of consent shall remain unaffected.

The personal data you voluntarily provide will only be stored for as long as necessary to inform you about the results of the survey. Data will only be stored beyond this period if:

- we are legally obliged to retain the data for a longer period pursuant to statutory retention and documentation obligations under Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. c GDPR. In this case, the data will only be stored to the extent and for the period required by the respective legal obligation;
- you have consented to the storage of your personal data beyond this period pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. a GDPR.

3. Use of the Mailingwork Service

For the implementation and technical administration of the survey, we work with the service provider Positive Group Chemnitz GmbH, Schönherrstr. 8, 09113 Chemnitz, Germany, which provides us with the online platform "Mailingwork". In the course of using this service, the personal data you voluntarily enter as part of the survey, in particular your name, email address and telephone number, may be processed and stored. The processing is carried out in particular for the purpose of collecting your contact details and, if requested by you, informing you about the results of the survey.

We have concluded a data processing agreement with the service provider. Under this agreement, the service provider undertakes to process the data on our behalf in accordance with the GDPR and to ensure the protection of the rights of data subjects. The data is processed on servers located in Germany.

4. Forwarding data to third parties

As a general rule, your personal data will not be disclosed to third parties unless there is a legal basis under data protection law for doing so. Disclosure may take place in particular if:

- you have consented to the transfer of your personal data pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. a GDPR;
- the transfer is necessary to comply with a legal obligation pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. c GDPR; or
- the transfer is permitted on the basis of another statutory provision.

To the extent that we use the Mailingwork service for the technical implementation of the survey, your personal data is processed by Positive Group Chemnitz GmbH as a data processor pursuant to Art. 28 GDPR. Further details can be found in the section "Use of the Mailingwork Service".

5. Rights of the data subject

You have the following rights:

- pursuant to Art. 7 (3) GDPR, to withdraw your consent at any time. This means that we may not continue the data processing based on this consent in the future;
- pursuant to Art. 15 GDPR, to obtain access to your personal data processed by us. In particular, you may request information about the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned, the categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, and the envisaged period for which the data will be stored. Moreover, you have the right to request rectification, erasure, or restriction of processing, to object to processing, the right to lodge a complaint, and to obtain information about the source of your data if they were not collected by us, as well as about the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, and, if applicable, meaningful information about the logic involved;
- pursuant to Art. 16 GDPR, to obtain the rectification of inaccurate data or the completion of your personal data without undue delay;
- pursuant to Art. 17 GDPR, to obtain the erasure of personal data saved by us unless processing is necessary to exercise the right of freedom of expression and information, to comply with a legal obligation, for reasons of public interest, or to establish, exercise or defend legal claims;
- pursuant to Art. 18 GDPR, to obtain restriction of processing of your personal data if you contest the accuracy of the data, the processing is unlawful but you oppose the erasure of the personal data, or if we no longer need the personal data but you still require the data for establishing, exercising or defending legal claims, or if you have filed an objection to the processing pursuant to Art. 21 GDPR;
- pursuant to Art. 20 GDPR, to receive your personal data that you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format or to request the transmission of those data to another controller and
- pursuant to Art. 77 GDPR, the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. Generally, you may contact the supervisory authority of your habitual residence, place of work or the registered offices of our organization.

Right to object

If your personal data is processed on the basis of legitimate interests pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. f GDPR, you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data pursuant to Art. 21 GDPR if reasons exist for doing so that are based on your special situation or if the objection relates to direct marketing. In the latter case, you have a general right to object, with which we will comply without you having to provide information about a special situation.

If you would like to assert your right to object, an email to dsgvo.uk@iws.fraunhofer.de will suffice.
